

GOAL

- Providing a place to meet sustainable and circular organisations across the entire textile chain
- Increase and share knowledge and thereby develop products and services
- Stimulate innovations
- Raise awareness about circular textiles
- Providing reliable information

... to create a sustainable future.

OUR MISSION

Circular Textile Days brings together knowledge and knowhow in the global field of circular and sustainable textile of various organisations and individuals and encourages chain cooperation, in order to form an international platform of relevant and truthful information.

A woman with long brown hair, wearing a light blue button-down shirt, is looking down at a piece of fabric she is holding in a wooden crate. The setting appears to be a clothing store or a fashion exhibition. In the background, there are clothing racks with various items, including a red top and a black top. A sign on the right side of the image reads "Conscious shopping made easy".

“WE NEED TO CHANGE THE WAY WE PRODUCE CLOTHES IN ORDER TO REDUCE THEIR IMPACT ON OUR PLANET.”

Niki de Schryver, Founder of COSHI!

A decorative wavy line in orange and teal colors runs horizontally across the bottom of the image.

“DECISIONS AT THE DESIGN STAGE
ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR 80% OF THE GARMENT'S ECOLOGICAL IMPACT.”
